INTRODUCTION

Profile : This socio-demographic profile outlines the age structure, educational attainment levels and labour force activity of the Aboriginal and Non-Aboriginal populations of Alberta in 1996.

Data Source : Statistics Canada, 1996 Census of Canada.
The Aboriginal population data was derived from the ethnic origin question.

Report : The summary section of the profile compares the socio-demographic characteristics of the Aboriginal population of Alberta, Calgary, Edmonton, Fort McMurray, Grande Prairie, Lethbridge, Red Deer and St. Albert. The remainder of the report outlines the socio-demographic characteristics of the Aboriginal and Non-Aboriginal populations of the respective areas.

Points to Note :
(a) Percentages may not add to 100 due to rounding.
(b) Aggregate totals are different from overall totals. Statistics Canada uses the procedures of random rounding and area suppression to prevent the possibility of associating statistical data with an identifiable individual.
(c) Fort McMurray refers to the former city of Fort McMurray.

Definitions :
(a) Aboriginal refers to a person who reported at least one Aboriginal ethnic origin, that is, North American Indian, Metis or Inuit.
(b) Unemployment rate refers to the unemployed labour force expressed as a percentage of the total labour force in the week (Sunday to Saturday) prior to Census Day. (page 64, 1996 Census Dictionary).
(c) Participation rate refers to the total labour force in the week (Sunday to Saturday) prior to Census Day, expressed as a percentage of the population 15 years of age and over, excluding institutional residents. (page 60, 1996 Census Dictionary).
(d) Employment income refers to the total income received by persons 15 years of age and over during the calendar year 1995 as wages and salaries, net income from non-farm unincorporated business and/or professional practice and net farm self-employment income. (page 30, 1996 Census Dictionary).
(e) Government transfer payments refers to the total income from all transfer payments received from federal, provincial, or municipal governments during calendar year 1995. (page 31, 1996 Census Dictionary).
